The Bleak Shore of Winter Past

There comes the point when winter has run its course but lingers on like the most obnoxious of pests. This is that time. Along the shore the neglect and wear of the hard season is there for all to see. Half the shore, at Mattapoisett Town Landing on the cover and above, is bare and the rest remains frozen in the grip of the ice sheet which is reluctant to depart. As March comes in, here we are like the skiffs, battered, flaky, badly in need of the tender loving care of the warm and healing sun.

Winter.. begone, we have had enough!

Police Officers May Now Serve as Volunteer Firemen

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
FEBRUARY 23, 1988-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

Because one of the hardest times to get voluntary firefighters is during the day working hours, the Board of Selectmen last Tuesday agreed to rescind a town regulation prohibiting police officers to also be members of the fire department.

In a letter signed jointly by Police Chief James F. Moran and Fire Chief Donald C. Wood seeking to rescind the regulation stating that no police officer could be a member of the Fire Department, the two Chiefs expressed the feeling that under today's circumstances the change is in order.

The Chiefs agreed that in cases of emergencies the Police Officers would work under the direction of the Police Chief. Estimated to have been made a regulation about 15 years ago, the ruling, said Selectmen Chairman John N. DeCosta, was put into effect by a different Board of Selectmen who felt at that time there was a conflict between the two departments.

On agreeing to rescind the regulation, Selectmen placed a stipulation that both Chiefs be in agreement on the men and the hours. If there are some new police officers who were firemen previous to being appointed police officers, something can be worked out with the two departments.

In other business, Selectmen:

MET WITH members of the Mattapoisett School Committee (Ellen Driscoll, chairman; Dorothea Peirce and Maureen Duff Best) to discuss its fiscal 1989 budget. Chairman Driscoll presented the Board with an outline of projected capital needs, noting this is an overall look at what they feel needs to be done. "We need your direction," she added.

Selectmen agreed to allow the School Committee to place two special articles in the town warrant for the May 2nd annual town meeting. The first, for a total of $224,000 which will include $100,000 for new windows on the 1898-1937 sections of Center School, $104,000 to replace the roof at Old Hammondtown School and $20,000 to paint the exterior of both Center and Old Hammondtown Schools.

Chairman DeCosta said this special article will have to seek a Proposition 2½ override. The second article will be for an amount to be determined (possibly $15,000) to remove the asbestos around the Center School boilers.

Mrs. Driscoll said work on the $152,900 voted on an override last year for the Center School boilers is completed and is waiting now for completion of an asbestos report.

As explained by committee member Dorothea Peirce, the Old Hammondtown School roof is a flat roof and is in bad condition. "We don't want the same problem as Old Rochester Regional High School had with its roof problem", said Mrs. Peirce.

Chairman DeCosta recommended the school committee investigate the new roof recently placed on the Old

MET WITH State Representative John Bradford to discuss recent legislation during his regular courtesy visit. Mr. DeCosta said they were especially interested in House Bill 3511 dealing with Police/Fire Station Building Assistance Fund. "If we built our station new we would still be eligible for assistance." Rep. Bradford explained the bill will go to the Joint Committee on Police Safety around March 7th and will probably be recommended to the Ways and Means Committee, of which he is a member.

Rep. Bradford informed Selectmen he is working on a bill to encourage people to become volunteer firefighters, with college education paid for as an incentive. This will be similar to the Guards program. He noted the details would have to be worked out with a person joining a local department and attending a local college.

Selectmen also urged Mr. Bradford to keep a check on Chapter 91, the controversial project relating to Water Access. The Representative agreed there should be another public hearing similar to the one held last year at ORR High School on this issue. Rep. Bradford will check on Selectmen's question on whether there is any funding under the Clean Waters Act for cleanup of the Mattapoisett River which has been condemned for shellfishing for three years.

APPROVED THE BID of Pierce Manufacturing Inc. for a fire truck for $158,853. Although this is not the lowest bid, Selectmen accepted this bid at the recommendation of Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming because the original bid from Greenwood Fire Apparatus, Inc. of North Attleboro (low bidder) was found to contain discrepancies.

Town Counsel wrote to the Greenwood Company indicating that the records showed the company did not act on the rejection of their bid. With no contest from the Greenwood company, Selectmen have the legal authority to accept the next proposal.

CLARIFY NEW RATE

Dog Officers Joseph and Linda Caton have clarified the new rates charged Mattapoisett residents for the care and feeding of dogs picked up with tags.

The new rate is a total of $9., with $3. going to the dog officers and $6. going to the Town. Previously, residents misunderstood the division of charges thinking the dog officers were collecting the full amount. Selectmen are still considering an increase in the charges.

play written by Ruth Gordon in 1947.

Ms. Gordon was a teenager in Wollaston, Massachusetts in 1917. Her eager desire to go out and make it big as a theater actress was unsettling to her old-fashioned parents. Her father was a former seaman from the port of New Bedford.

"Years Ago" offers a view of local history, exciting scenery, and talented acting by high school students many of whom appeared in A Christmas Carol and Fiddler on the Roof, two fine productions at ORR. This 1988 season is the premiere of The Bristol Theatre Club as well as "Years Ago". You may purchase tickets at the door or by calling 758-3745.

is seeking drivers as back-ups for the MEALS ON WHEELS program. Occasionally the senior van is not available to make the noon deliveries of meals to shut-ins. We are anxious to have names on file to call in such an emergency. Normally delivery to the home is made to about twenty people. While this is a volunteer effort, we can pay either $4.00 per hour or reimburse the driver for mileage at the rate of 22¢ per mile.

Please call the Council Office from 9 a.m. until noon any Monday through Friday (758-3758) if you might be available to make this contribution once or twice a month.

Many local residents have at one time or another had to rely on the home delivery of a meal. For one just home from the hospital, such a service is greatly appreciated. Won't you please consider participating?

QUESTION:

WHY SHOULD CHILDREN HAVE CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL MANIPULATION?

ANSWER: Because growth and development can be affected by minor bumps, jars and falls.

Every year, thousands of structural health problems in students of grade and high school level go undetected even though teachers, coaches and physical education instructors watch for health irregularities which might interfere with a child's physical performance and learning ability.

Part of their jobs? Not really. It's that extra sense of dedication that makes these already overworked public servants give children that extra attention. The "school guardian" is responsible in many cases for the detection of potential health problems and the funneling of children to proper health authorities.

What most people don't know is that most health problems are far too complex for the teacher to note. And with a busy schedule, the educator can't be expected to have the time to screen problems that are beyond his or her scope of training, no matter how conscientious the teacher may be. The result: many children have health problems that retard their ability to learn or engage in sports effectively.

Here's what you can do:

- Parents should be urged to take more responsibility for their children's health.
- Parents and teachers should be alert to such things as changes in energy level, postural changes, moodiness, listlessness or any unusual signs that signal a problem that will impede learning. One of the observable signs is lack of interest in school activities.
- The structural balance of the child's body should be considered. The school teacher will no doubt note the child's posture, but that does not always indicate the structural integrity of the body. Comprehensive chiropractic examinations, including examinations of the spine, pelvis, neck and limbs should be recommended to avoid developmental problems.
- Incorporate posture awareness programs into your class projects. Write for suggestions and materials.

A Gleaming Hope

Editorial, DCJ

One of the great moments of our life has passed into history to be completely forgotten in a year or so except for the record that is written and by the participants who will never forget. For two weeks we have held high hopes and have suffered with those who tried so valiantly only to have their dreams shattered. What a lesson there is in these marvelous young adults of our world. In spite of governments who heap money and instruction upon some of their athletes, some fail to reach the top. In spite of other governments who honor the concept of amateurism that is the Olympics, some rise to the gold. Not often, but, still they do. Yet, among themselves it matters little. They know the talent among them and are generous with their congratulations and brave in their defeats. They rise to the occasion. They rise off the deck to try again. No matter the country, your spirit has to soar with those who stand atop the winner's stand and have their nation's anthem played in exultation. Those special moments transcend all national ideologies. If the countries represented would compete in the world with the spirit of their young athletes, we could do with a lot less hardware to protect us from each other.

On the ice, on the slope and soaring like the eagle, they are just the finest that the people of the world can produce - all of them. When you are pulling for the best in the human, you tend to completely forget the worst in human nature. If governments would get out of the way and clear the barbed wire to let people mingle, who knows but that we might all get along quite well. Certainly those youngsters from behind the Iron Curtain are astounded by the genuine affection encountered in Calgary.

Perhaps, no, probably, our athletes would have met the same reception had former President Jimmy Carter not made the Olympics a punitive part of his foreign policy. We can be as wrong as they are and have proved it. The Olympics are really a demonstration of the best hope for the human condition. We should stand to admire, to cheer them all. The world can learn if it would.

a day for the entire family, one that will be both entertaining and educational for all who live near or come to Buzzards Bay for vacations."

Interested persons are invited to attend a planning session at 7:30 p.m. Monday, March 7th, at the Storer Building, Room #31 at Mass. Maritime Academy or to contact the Coalition office, also at the Academy.

Volunteers are needed to staff sites in all of the communities that surround Buzzards Bay. Workers are needed to conduct coastal walking tours, help with boat rides, among the many varied events planned for Buzzards Bay Day scheduled for Saturday, June 11th.

Allsup also states, "The Coalition hopes to get as much community participation as possible," adding this is a great way for those who want to protect the Bay to get involved at a grass-roots level.

The first Buzzards Bay Day brought together over 550 active participants from communities stretching from Westport to Falmouth. This year's Buzzards Bay Day is being held in conjunction with River Day, sponsored by the Westport River Watershed Alliance.

Afterwards League members Blanchette, Robb, Crowley and Reis took Senator William MacLean, Senator John F. Parker and Representative John C. Bradford to lunch as guests of the local League. Proposed legislation was discussed and, in addition, the legislators gave fascinating glimpses of the trials and satisfactions of their hard-working legislative existence. Everyone had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

At the end of the day LWVM/M President Debra Blanchette stated, "The State League's Legislative Agenda targets a variety of issues critical to the health and future of our state and our society and our 'Tri-Town' League will work towards the resolution of these issues. We are proud to make a difference!"

New England Contra Dancing

New England Contra Dancing to live music with Kerry Elkin and "Geese in the Bog" will be held Sunday, March 6th, at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall of the Unitarian Memorial Church on the corner of Green and Center Streets, Fairhaven. Sponsored by the Intergenerational Committee of the Unitarian Society of Fairhaven, the dance is open to all, beginners and singles welcome. The admission charge is $3.00 per person.

This form of folk dancing is derived from the "country" or "contrary" or "longways" sets with dancers facing each other down the line, and comes from the British Isles and from France. The directions are given by a caller and the figures are basically the same as those for New England square dancing. Contra dancing has always been very popular in the North East and has now spread across the country to the West Coast.

The musicians play traditional Irish and Scottish jigs and reels, as well as other folk music tunes

"MY CAMERA DOESN'T TAKE GOOD PICTURES!"

We hear that comment every day. The truth is, ANY half-way decent 35mm camera CAN take good pictures, assuming that it's in good working order. Where most photographers fail is in their choice of processor. The best picture you've EVER taken can be made to look ordinary or worse if it isn't developed and printed properly. That's precisely why we invested tens of thousands of dollars in the FINEST, STATE-OF-THE-ART LAB money can buy. So, if you think your pictures could be better, let us make them better, instantly. A. DEFINITELY NOT! Passive exercise is the alternative to strenuous exercise. It has been said by physical therapists that the concept is effective for people with heart problems, artificial joint recipients, arthritics and others. In 1947 Marceau created "BIP", the clown who in his striped pullover and battered, beflowered opera hat, has become his alter-ego even as Charlie Chaplin's Little Tramp became that star's personality. Bip's misadventures with everything from butterflies to lions, on ships and trains, in dance halls or restaurants, are limitless.

His silent exercises, which include such classic works as "The Cage", "Walking Against the Wind", "The Mask Maker", "In the Park", and satires on everything from sculptors to matadors, have been described as works of genius. Of his summation of the ages of Man in the famous "Youth, Maturity, Old Age and Death", one critic said that "He accomplishes in less than two minutes what most novelists cannot do in volumes."

His first tour of the United States occurred in 1955-56, close on the heels of his North American debut at the Stratford (Ontario) Festival. Since then, Marceau's art has become familiar to millions of Americans through his many television appearances. His first television performance as a star performer on the Max Liebman "Show of Shows" won him the television industry's coveted "Emmy" award.

Marceau has now brought his expertise as a teacher to the United States with his annual seminars for been active as an actor, musical director, television host, hunger activist and family man.

His early environment was rich in creative elements especially with the influence of his brother, the late singer/songwriter Harry Chapin and his younger brother, Steve. The three brothers started singing in the choir of Grace Episcopal Church in Brooklyn Heights, New York. A pivotal influence on their early musical development was an album, "The Weavers at Carnegie Hall". Tom bought a thirty dollar guitar, Harry learned to play a five string banjo he unearthed in their grandmother's basement, and the young trio worked up an arrangement of "This Land is Your Land".

In the late 1960s Tom performed the music for an award-winning documentary, "Blue Water, White Death". Following that, Tom and his brother Steve formed a band, "The Chapins", with two other friends. Even though the group eventually disbanded, Tom and Steve have still continued to collaborate and work on such projects as the musical review, "Harry Chapin: Lies and Legends"; a series of children's albums with the first album entitled "Cabbage Patch Dreams:' and numerous benefits with the World Hunger (WHY), the non-profit organization founded by their late brother Harry.

Tom has also worked as a TV host for the children's program, "Make a Wish"; has performed on Broadway in the acclaimed musical, "Pump Boys sistant David Harrison has authored a booklet on motivation and self-improvement. The theme of his booklet is "Being the Best You Can Be", and is officialy titled "Suggestions for Self-Improvement and Personal Happiness".

According to Mr. Harrison, the booklet was written with the hope that it will "help kids get the best out of life and to be happy with what they do". Originally the booklet was designed for Old Colony football players, but has been expanded to include the entire student body. The text is being printed in Old Colony's Offset Printing department; distribution is scheduled for early March.

Mr. Harrison does not plan to write another booklet, but does want to conduct lectures and workshops to present the issues discussed in his work. He will be surveying the communities to identify interest in motivational sessions. In addition, copies of the booklet will be available to the general public with proceeds to benefit the Old Colony football team.
